Media Kit 2020

Jeju

We cover social and political causes, promote the heroes of our time, sustainable fashion, eco-friendly beauty, healthy living, and many more topics.

Join us, and be on the positive side of history!

Jejune

was founded by Kira Bucca, who currently serves as editor-in-chief.

Kira is a fashion photographer, award-winning pole dancer, and humanitarian.

Her passion for social causes and activism inspired her to start Jejune, driven to give a voice to those that are marginalized or disadvantaged by a system that no longer works for the people.

We are proud to say that we have supported important organizations such as:

GLSEN

THE WAYUU TAYA
FOUNDATION

Jeune

uses imagery and fashion to feature influential people and cover controversial issues in a beautiful way.
